Kryst.

P.S. I miss Bruno terribly. Please feel free to send pics and tell him mommy loves him. I miss twirling for him. Lol. Please tell your family I said hello and that I am wishing them the best. (I really regret that I will not get to go shopping with your Aunt Ness in Cali...) but I will be out there shopping soon enough.)

Krystal,

I am glad to hear that things are going extremely well for you. I wish you all the best for your future.

Respectfully, I am asking you not to contact me, my family, or my friends any further. Take care of yourself.

Adam,

First, I hope you are mature enough to keep this communication between us and to not divulge the contents of this email or even state that I have sent you an email. I am praying that God touches your heart and mind so that you don't glean anything negative from this message because it is not negative. This is the first time I have reached out to you. I have not called, etc. I am only reaching out now, because I feel it is necessary in light of some of the things that have happened.

Can we agree to 1) not discuss our relationship and the awful things that happened in August with anyone, and most importantly with our friends and colleagues at UD, AND 2) not do anything that would hurt each other further (dating each other's friends, speaking badly of each other, etc.)?
